

ART TOUR

WINGING IT THROUGH PORTSMOUTH, VIRGINIA

PORTSMOUTH CULTURAL ARTS
DISTRICT

The wing murals shown here are found in the Olde Towne section of Portsmouth's Cultural Arts District. The District offers many examples of artistic expression including murals and sculptures. Visit a diverse selection of museums showcasing Portsmouth's rich nautical history, cultural heritage and creative traditions. Enjoy your walk!

Angelic Wings by Sue Landerman. Middle Street Mall behind Children's Museum.

Fanciful Hummingbird by Victoria Weiss. Middle Street Mall.

Madagascan Moon Moth by Ben & Carolyn Riley. Coffee Shoppe, 300 High Street.

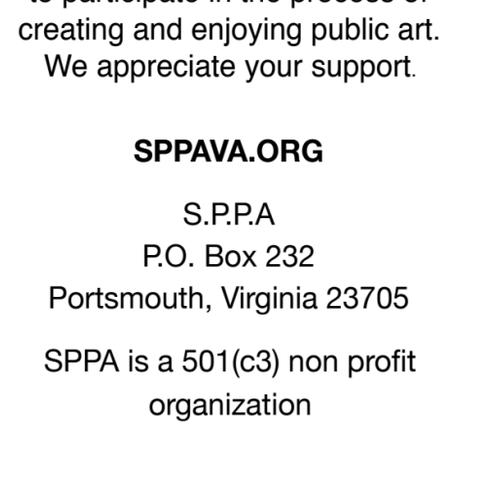

Playful Biplane by Victoria Weiss. Baron's Pub, 500 High Street.

Proud Peacock by Clayton Singleton. Drug Center Pharmacy, 600 High Street.

Serious Steampunk by Ellen Bible and welder Chris Goodwin. 900 High Street.

Flitting Dragonfly by Matthew Diggs. 505 Washington Street at High Street.

The Wings Below are located outside of the Cultural Arts District in other Portsmouth neighborhoods.

Lovely Ladybug by Aimee Bruce. 340 Broad Street. Historic Port Norfolk.

Colorful Butterfly by Chris Green. JoJacks Espresso Bar. 5100 Churchland Blvd.

Awesome Owl Wings by Victoria Weiss. Hoffer Creek Wildlife Preserve. Churchland.

Support Portsmouth Public Art

About Us

Support Portsmouth Public Art (SPPA) was formed by volunteers in 2010 with a mission dedicated to purchase and install public art, to educate citizens, and to create outreach to the neighborhoods in Portsmouth.

SPPA seeks to engage our citizens of all ages to participate in the process of creating and enjoying public art. We appreciate your support.

SPPA.ORG

S.P.P.A
P.O. Box 232
Portsmouth, Virginia 23705

SPPA is a 501(c3) non profit organization